HARVEST PROJECT UPDATE

Work on interior facilities renovations is scheduled to begin at the church July 28!

As a result, Sunday worship services will move to McIntosh Hall/Gym beginning August 3 and continue in there through the fall.

Reserved handicapped parking will be available near the main entrance to McIntosh Hall. Members and guests will be encouraged to access worship services through either Stanway

Hall or Currie Hall. Deacons and volunteers will be stationed at each entrance to assist worshipers during the transition.

There are architectural plans, renderings, and material samples describing aspects of the Harvest project on display in the office building for our members to review. If you wish to schedule a time to come by during the week, please contact Arrington Rhett at 601-408-4721.

Sermon Notes

“Work”

Ephesians 6:5-9; Colossians 3:22-25

Ephesians 6:5-9

⁵Bondservants, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, ⁶not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as bondservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, ⁷rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, ⁸knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a bondservant or is free. ⁹Masters, do the same to them, and stop your threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and that there is no partiality with him.

1. Do all your work for Christ

2. Do your work with all your heart

Colossians 3:22-25

²² Bondservants, obey in everything those who are your earthly masters, not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. ²³ Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, ²⁴ knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. ²⁵ For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality.
